Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village,
Dearborn, Michigan 63
(C) 1942 Chaffee and Co., Inc.

Named for the mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, the beautiful Martha-Mary Chapel is a Greenfield Village landmark. The bricks and doors in the building, which overlooks the "green", are from the girlhood home of Mrs. Ford. In the graceful tower, a sweet-toned bell cast by a descendant of Paul Revere, announces morning services to children who attend the village schools.
